gather to ratify his action if it is approved.

From unofficial information reaching here tonight two sites were proposed for the location of a new parkin event the Wilson interests retuse to lease Boulevard Field. One of the sites is on Mayo's Island and the other-is located in Fairmont. It is understood, however, that the Wilson interests have offered Boulevard Eield for $1.500 a season, but members of the committee here decline to discuss the Richmerd propositions.

Two sites on West Broad Street also are said to be considered by the league mogula. One is located two squares beyond the Boulevard on the southers situated on the northside of West-Broad Street, between the Southern Stock Yards and the Union Depot.
